Written Student Appeal Form for Academic Suspension

We understand that every student's academic journey is unique, and academic suspension does not define your potential for future success. Please use the space below to share your story, including the circumstances that contributed to your academic suspension, what you have learned from the experience, and the specific steps you have taken—or plan to take—to improve your academic performance and achieve your educational goals:

Please include this document, a completed academic success plan, and any supporting documentation in your submission to your campus deans office for review.
