

Biography

Christina Wynn, Ed.D.

Christina L. Wynn, Ed.D. is a dedicated and experienced higher education leader with a strong record of advancing student access, institutional resilience, and inclusive excellence. With more than 20 years of experience spanning finance, enrollment, operations, and community engagement, Dr.

Wynn brings a collaborative and equity-minded approach to leadership, one grounded in service to students, staff, and the communities they represent.

Dr. Wynn currently serves as Vice President for Administration & Finance and Chief Financial Officer at Berkshire Community College (BCC) in Pittsfield, Massachusetts, where she leads institutional budgeting, long-range financial planning, and strategic operations across key areas including information technology, facilities, and auxiliary services. Her leadership has been deeply collaborative, working closely with faculty and academic leaders to ensure that budget and infrastructure decisions align with instructional priorities and student learning outcomes. In previous roles, including Dean of Enrollment Management, Interim Dean of Business & Outreach, and Director of Marketing & Student Recruitment, she partnered with academic departments to design and implement initiatives that strengthened student success, expanded credit and noncredit offerings, supported faculty-led innovation, and improved enrollment among historically underserved student populations. Her efforts have helped secure millions in grants and capital funding to advance the college's mission of delivering high-quality, accessible, and equitable education to all students.

She holds an Ed.D. in Organizational Leadership from Northeastern University, where her research focused on cultivating leadership pipelines within community colleges. Dr. Wynn also earned an MBA from the University of Massachusetts and a B.S. in Business Administration from the Massachusetts College of Liberal Arts. In recognition of her equity-driven leadership, she was named a Fall 2024 Executive Fellow with the Civic Action Project (CAP) Collaborative, a program that convenes transformative leaders from both the public and private sectors to forge strategic partnerships and co-create forward-looking, innovative policy solutions. As a first-generation college graduate, she understands firsthand the transformative power of higher education and is passionate about building student-ready institutions that remove barriers and foster belonging.

Deeply committed to community well-being, Dr. Wynn has long partnered with organizations that promote economic development, educational access, and social equity. She has served in leadership roles with the Berkshire United Way, Pittsfield Economic Development Authority, and other nonprofits focused on building stronger, more inclusive communities. Her service has been recognized through multiple civic and professional honors. Dr. Wynn currently resides in Pittsfield with her husband and their two sons.