

In compliance with the federal Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974, and the Board of Regent's FERPA Notice and Directory Information Policy, CT State Community College is prohibited from providing certain information from your student records to a third party (such as information about grades, billing, tuition and fee assessments, financial aid, and other student record information). This restriction applies (but is not limited) to your parents, your spouse/life partner, or a sponsor.

You may, at your discretion, grant CT State Community College permission to release information about your student records to a third party by submitting a completed Student Information Release Authorization form.

Completing this form will revoke any authorization to your education record that was previously granted to a third-party designee.
